SEA HISTORY

THE ART, LITERATURE, ADVENTURE, LORE AND LEARNING OF THE SEA

The National Maritime Historical Society's mission is to preserve and perpetuate the maritime history of the United States and to invite all Americans to share in the challenging heritage of seafaring.

Editorial Profile

Our seafaring history comes alive in the pages of Sea History, the National Maritime Historical Society's quarterly magazine. Each issue brings new insights and discoveries, from the ancient Greek mariners, to Portuguese navigators opening up the ocean world, to the heroic efforts of seamen of World War II.

Sea History is recognized as the pre-eminent journal of advocacy and education in the field, covering the world of maritime museums, sail training, art, literature, lore, and learning of the sea with a national focus and an international scope. Sea History Magazine carries stories on ships and the sea both past and present.

About Our Readers

Members of the National Maritime Historical Society, Sea History's readers, are active, well-educated, avid readers and collectors. Our surveys prove that our members are an ideal advertising audience for an extensive array of products, publications, establishments, programs and services.
