Historic Congressional Cemetery Tour for 25 people with Paul K. Williams, President and Dayle Dooley

Begin your tour at 1801 E Street, SE. The tour will then continue underground in the Public Vault, built in 1835, and once ‘home’ to Dolley Madison, John Quincy Adams, Zachary Taylor, and William Henry Harrison. You will also tour four historic squares as part of the 35 acre grounds, with a visit to the 1903 Chapel, Native American Totem poles, 9/11 path, mausoleum row, a peek inside the Causten vault, and the LGBT corner. You will enjoy countless stories of some of our 65,000 famous and infamous ‘residents’ that include J. Edgar Hoover, John Philip Sousa, Mathew Brady, a famous DC madam, and many more. Tour to be held at a mutually agreeable time.

In The Hurricane's Eye

By Nathaniel Philbrick,
New York Times Best Selling Author

New
Release
Signed

The thrilling story of the Revolutionary War finale and the remarkable year leading up to the siege of Yorktown. It sets Washington against his traitorous nemesis Benedict Arnold and places him in impossible situations and constant acrimonious negotiation with his French allies, along with his young protégé, the Marquis de Lafayette and his energetic general Nathanael Greene. In a narrative that moves from the ship-crowded waters off Newport, Rhode Island, to a wooded hillside near North Carolina's Guilford Courthouse, to the Dutch storehouses on the Caribbean island of St. Eustatius, Philbrick narrates the pivotal naval battle that brought the end of America's long, elusive path to independence. It was an improbable triumph made possible by Washington's brilliant strategy, leadership, and revolutionary use of sea power.
